First Importing Houses.' These first "importing Houses" must feel flattered with the patronage extended to them, from Millersburg.

The people of Holmes county leve to be "humburgged" in his way. It has made him fat and cambled him to pay his rents, and seems to have had a bad effect upon competitors, for they look like "hunger on a monument smiling at beef." After while, perhaps, he will get a TREMENDOUS WHEEL-BARROW LOAD of goods and have a "Free Exhibition, too," but for the present he prefers getting them by the CAR LOAD in order to supply his numerous customers. It is much pleasanter, he thinks to "laugh and grow fat" than to spend your time in crying over goods which you can't sell, even though you have connection with the "first Importing
